MEMORANDUM FOR: Legislative Counsel

SUBJECT : Telephone Conversation with Mr. Warren A. McNeill, Administrative Assistant to Senator A. Willis Robertson - Final Report of the National Capital Planning Commission.

1. You will recall that on 6 March I sent to Mr. Warren A. McNeill, Administrative Assistant to Senator A. Willis Robertson (D., Virginia), a copy of the National Capital Planning Commission's final report concerning the Langley location, together with an exchange of correspondence between Mr. Dulles and Mr. Bartholomew and advised him that Mr. Dulles would like to talk with Senator Robertson about this matter.
2. On 7 March Mr. McNeill telephoned to say that the Senator had gone over the material which I had sent and wished to assure Mr. Dulles that he would go along with our proposal.
3. If Mr. Dulles still desires to talk with Senator Robertson the Senator will be glad to see him but apparently does not consider it necessary. I told Mr. McNeill that I would pass this on to Mr. Dulles and that if Mr. Dulles did want to see Senator Robertson he would perhaps give him a ring.
